TWO DOORS WEST OF COURT HOUSE

TO PROVE UP PONTOTOC.

McClure and King Gone to Guthrie With Election Records.

In response to the state canvassing board's demands for the full returns from each county, provisional county clerk, S. T. McClure of Roff and County Election Commissioner B. C. King left Sunday afternoon for Guthrie armed to the teeth to show the board that Pontotoc county's vote is all right just as heretofore certified.

Mr. McClure has been faithfully serving the county for months, assisting in the necessary preliminaries to statehood, and Mr. King helped materially in conducting the election of Sept. 17 and in the task of receiving and tabulating the returns.

Together, the two gentlemen should be able to convince the board, however, partisan it may be, that everything went straight in Pontotoc.

Not Fighting Gore.

Guthrie, Ok., Oct. 13.—Col. Roy Hoffman of Chandler, Ok., who was defeated in the three-cornered race for United States senator from the Oklahoma side in the democratic primary, today gave out a flat denial that he was interested in seeing T. P. Gore of Lawton, the successful candidate, defeated by the legislature.

"I am not in sympathy with the idea which seems to have been expressed that Mr. Gore will be defeated by a so-called 'dark horse,'" said Col. Hoffman, "and would oppose any movement along that line. Mr. Gore went before the people of Oklahoma and received more votes than I or the other candidates, consequently, under democratic rule and the principle upon which a primary is based, he is the choice of the greatest number of people, and should not be disturbed."

Cattle Train Wrecked.

Tulsa, I. T., Oct. 13.—A St. Louis and San Francisco eastbound fast stock train was wrecked at Tanabas siding, eight miles west of Tulsa, last night. The tender and eight cars, six of which were loaded with cattle, went into the ditch and considerable damage was done. The wreck blocked the road to traffic until late today, all trains having to detour by way of Okmulgee and Muskogee.

Steamer Sinks: 21 of Crew Lost.

Sainte Ste Marie, Mich., Oct. 13.—The steel steamer Cyprus owned by the Lackawanna Transportation company and on her second trip down the lakes with a cargo of ore was wrecked Friday night in Lake Superior off Deer Park, which is about 30 miles from Grand Marais, and all of the crew of 22, excepting the second mate, were lost. He was washed ashore near Deer Park Island lashed to a life raft, barely alive. He is in a critical condition and thus far he has been able to tell only that he is the only survivor of the steamer Cyprus. He is receiving careful medical attention in the hospital. He has suffered terribly from cold and exposure in addition to battering of the waves.

The names of but five of the drowned members of the crew are definitely known.

National Farmers' Meeting.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Oct. 14.—The National Farmers' Association, with a membership extending throughout the United States and Canada, will convene in this city on Oct. 17 for its annual meeting which will extend for five days. Three thousand delegates are expected to be present, a large majority of whom will come from Oklahoma.

Many prominent men will address the association, among them Governor Cummins of Iowa, Gov. Broward of Florida and Gov. Frantz of Oklahoma.

Thirty Clerks on Hand.

Guthrie, Ok., Oct. 13.—Thirty county clerks are here with poll books, tally sheets and certification of votes on the constitution and prohibition for delivery to the canvassing board tomorrow morning. It was announced today that Oklahoma county would not deliver its data until the question of delivery is tested in the courts. Beaver county is likewise reported.

The work of preparing a certified copy of the constitution for the president will not begin until the board completes its canvass, which, it is asserted, will cause additional delay.

TYING UP ELECTION CANVASS

Evidence Accumulates that Hunter and His Crowd Plan to Keep Republican County Clerks Away from Guthrie, Resulting in Indefinite Delay.

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 13.—Despite the protestations of Charles E. Hunter, the republican state chairman who conducted the losing campaign, James R. Cottingham, his attorney, and the three federal office-holders who constitute the state returning board, alleging that their action in delaying the canvass of the vote on the constitution was not intended to defeat statehood, the democrats have come into what they consider substantial evidence that the republican state committee is using its influence secretly to prevent the eleven republican county clerks in the state from complying with the request of the returning board by producing in Guthrie the original request of the returning board. Blackburn says he will not bring the returns to Guthrie, nor leave them go out of his possession unless compelled to do so by an order from the courts. This is believed by the democrats to be the position which will be taken by all the republican county clerks.

In addition to their secret instructions to republican clerks, the statehood obstructionists are attempting by threats of arrest and intimidation, to prevent democratic clerks from complying with the request of the returning board. Several instances of these threats of arrest have been reported from over the state, one of the most flagrant being in Comanche county inal poll books an dttaly sheets of the constitutional election.

As primary evidence of the existence of such a plot is taken the fact that while democratic county clerks from remote sections of the state like Harper, Okfuskee and Mayes counties responded promptly to the request of the board and have turned over to them the required records, not a single republican county clerk has yet appeared in Guthrie. This is the more noticeable from the fact that practically all of the republican county clerks are in localities easily accessible to this city.

A further incriminating circumstance, pointing to Hunter as the ring-leader of the plot is that after agreeing to meet Chairman Thompson of the democratic committee in a conference on the matter Friday morning, Hunter failed to put in an appearance and refused absolutely to meet with Tromp son. The meeting between the two chairmen was proposed by the republican returning board, and was to be held for the purpose of arranging for a mutual effort on their part to secure the speedy bringing of the returns to Guthrie.

E. S. Blackburn, county clerk of Oklahoma county is the first republican to announce his intention to ignore the returning board and the republican plotters.

where J. E. Dyché, present territorial auditor and defeated republican candidate for state auditor, is quoted as having told the county clerk that if he took the poll books and tally sheets to Guthrie in compliance with the ruling of the board, that Chairman Hunter would have him arrested and prosecuted for a violation of the territorial statutes.

The purpose hoped to be accomplished by these proceedings apparently is a delay of statehood. If the republican clerks refuse to bring the returns to Guthrie, it is believed by Hunter and his crowd, that the returning board will have to go into court and attempt proceedings of this kind before courts presided over by partisan republicans whose salaries continue only so long as they find excuse to delay a decision, probably would require months if not years to bring to an issue.

While the cases dragged their slow way through the carpetbag courts the federal officeholders would continue to draw their salaries, the saloons would continue to dispense liquors and the railroads would continue to rob the people by exorbitant freight rates.

C. N. Haskell, the democratic governor-elect is on the ground and watching every move of the returning board and the republican plotters.

R. E. HAYNES

The Hardware Man, Ada, Okla.

He is besieged throughout the day with telephone messages and telegrams from citizens of both territories, offering any assistance in their power and bitterly upbraiding Hunter and his co-conspirators. The tenor of many of the communications indicates that the patience of the people is well nigh exhausted with the high-binding methods being pursued by the opponents of statehood, but Haskell is constantly counseling moderation and urging his friends to refrain from inflammatory utterance or actions.

In discussing the recent ruling of the board concerning the returns Mr. Haskell said tonight:

"Considering the fact that the election was held and the returns made to the state canvassing board upon blanks furnished by the election board controlled by Frank Frantz and Secretary Filson and exactly in accordance with the instructions sent out by Frantz and Filson, the Oklahoma statutes and the election ordinance, I am at a loss to see any reasonable or legal reason for this change. The democrats are ready, however, to go to any reasonable length to follow the requirements of the Clayton-Filson-Burford board. In any way of looking at it, it will devolve on the members of this board to purge themselves before the people of any suspicion that may justly attach to their conduct.

"While we are willing to aid in meeting the unusual requirements of this partisan election board, it is not because we believe these requirements are legal, but only because we are willing to do anything in reason that will aid in securing statehood. We are willing for the present, on the same considerations, to withhold what we believe to be just criticism until the developments of the next few days shall have proven if there is any improper motive back of this radical change of ruling from the former holding of the Frantz-Filson board.

"We are forced to the conclusion, however, from the simple fact that the ruling was made, that no effort is being spared on their part to defeat statehood."

DELAYING STATEHOOD.

The coterie of statehood obstructionists, led by Chairman Hunter, of the republican state committee, has succeeded in prevailing upon the state returning board to delay the canvass of the vote cast at the recent election long enough to bring the returns from each county to Guthrie in order that they may be counted again. Their purpose in this matter is not difficult to divine. If they cannot defeat statehood, they can, at least, delay it, and that is something to the army of carpetbaggers who are about to be kicked out upon a cold, unfeeling world with no alternative save going to work.

The ruling of the returning board in this matter is somewhat amazing. It ignores the finding of the Oklahoma supreme court and sets aside the instructions of Governor Frantz and Secretary Filson to the election officers of the state, which were sent out immediately preceding the late election.

A good many strange things occur in connection with the administration of affairs under a territorial form of government where no one connected with it is amenable to the people. In this instance, we can only conjecture the object of the returning board in holding that it is a la wunto itself. To take as charitable a view of the case as possible we will assume that it is proceeding in the discharge of its duties as the law directs and is bent upon finding some foundation in fact for Chairman Hunter's trumped-up affidavits. If this is its purpose, we feel like straining a point with it in order that something may be done to quiet Mr. Hunter's affrighted soul and silence his baseless cries of fraud.

In the meantime statehood can wait. What matters it if a million and a half American citizens are denied the boon of self-government for a few weeks, or a few months, or a few years so long as Mr. Hunter and his coterie of statehood obstructionists are disposed to demur to the inevitable. What matters it if we never get statehood while the Hunter affidavit mill is in working order? And why complain if returning boards go out of their way to help the game along?

In passing, however, let us admonish the people to possess their souls in patience and peace. The days of the carpetbagger are numbered, and the people are about to come into their own. That 104,000 majority for the constitution is too much for the statehood obstructionists, and no matter if they choose to do their dirtiest, as they evidently have; they can only delay the inevitable—and incidentally make democratic votes.—The Oklahoman.

State Will Have 44 Dispensaries.

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 14.—Under the prohibition clause of the constitution providing a liquor dispensary for every town of 2,000 population or more in the new state, there will be 44 such dispensary towns in Oklahoma. Of these 21 will be in Oklahoma Territory and 23 in Indian Territory. Only two counties will have two dispensaries, Coal and Kay, where Blackwell and Ponca City in the latter, are both entitled under the recent census to be so designated, and Coalgate and Lehigh in the former.

The towns, where dispensaries will be located are:

Oklahoma City, Muskogee, Guthrie, Enid, Shawnee, Ardmore, McAlester, Chickasha, Tulsa, Lawton, El Reno, Durant, Sapulpa, Bartlesville, Ada, Vinita, Norman, Hobart, Wagoner, Sulphur, Coalgate, Perry, Alva, Hugo, Mangum, Blackwell, Stillwater, Purcell, Ponca City, Duncan, Hartshorne, Pawhuska, Okmulgee, Chandler, Nowata, Kingfisher, Elk City, Anadarko, Lehigh, Pauls Valley, Claremore, Frederick, Wynnewood and Woodward.

Woods County Case Comes Up.

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 13.—The case of Woods county against the Oklahoma constitutional convention, challenging the convention's power to divide organized counties in Oklahoma, will come up in the United States supreme court Monday according to word received here today. Attorney H. A. Noah of Alva has gone to Washington to represent the county and Judge A. G. C. Bierer of Guthrie as counsel for the convention.

Canvass of Vote for Eight State Offices Completed.

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 13.—The state election board Saturday completed canvassing the returns on eight of the state offices, including governor, lieutenant-governor, secretary of state, superintendent of public instruction and state accountant.

The returns from the following four counties were not included in the canvass, for the reason that numerous precincts are missing and it was decided to await until a full canvassing board is present before these counties are taken up:

Muskogee with five precincts missing; Okfuskee with two; Wagoner with six and Cimarron with eleven. With these counties not included, the total vote on governor is as follows:

Frank Frantz, (rep.) 103,309; C. N. Haskell (dem.) 131,297; Ross (soc.) 9,476; Haskell's plurality, 27,786 and majority 18,312. The total vote on governor was 244,282 as compared with 249,709 on the constitution.

For secretary of state William Cross (dem.) has 33,330 majority over Thomas Robnett, (rep.) for lieutenant governor, George Bellamy, (dem.) 32,480, over N. G. Turk (rep.); for auditor, Ed Trapp (dem.) 31,018 over J. E. Dyche, (rep.); for superintendent of public instruction, E. D. Cameron (dem.) 33,099 over Calvin Ballard, (rep.); for treasurer, J. A. Menefee, (dem.) 32,332 over Mortimer Stillwell (rep.); for attorney general, Charles West, (dem.) 33,570 over Silas Reid, (rep.); and for state accountant, Charles Taylor, (dem.) 33,298 over John S. Fischer (rep.)

In all probability these majorities will be increased somewhat by the complete returns.

For secretary of state, Cross received a total of 130,625 votes, Robnett 97,295, and Watrons, (soc.) 9,334.

For lieutenant governor Bellamy received 129,699, Turk 97,219 and Carey, (soc.) 9,302.

For auditor, Trapp received 128,056, Dyche 97,038, and Davis (soc.) 9,401.

For public instruction Cameron received 130,089; Ballard, 96,990; Hanna (soc.) 9,434.

For treasurer Menefee has 129,618; Stillwell 97,286; Ash, (soc.) 9,044.

For attorney general West has 130,636; Reid 96,866; Marsh (soc.) 9,279.

For state accountant Taylor received 129,352; Fischer, 96,653; Dunn (soc.) 9,295.

REPORTS ON BELATED TRAINS.

The Custer County News, of Clinton, makes an apt suggestion in advising the traveling public to register a kick with the new state railway commission against the practice in vogue among most railway agents of reporting trains 30 minutes late which in reality are from one to four hours delayed.

As a general rule, The Oklahoman is constitutionally opposed to regulating by law all the ills which human flesh is heir to; yet this is one which has grown so flagrant in this region that the time has come when we will look with complaisance upon the adoption of any corrective methods.

There is really no good reason why depot agents should deliberately (we hesitate to say it, yet are unable to find any other word adequately expressing it) lie to the traveling public about the arrival and departure of trains, particularly belated trains. They do it, however, every day in the year, not particularly because there is anything in the rules of the company requiring it, but because they seemingly find a fiendish delight in disappointing those who are compelled to use the trains as a means of conveyance. Indeed, it is the common practice among depot agents to report train belated from two to five hours from 30 minutes to an hour late when they ought to know better, or, at least have the means at hand for definitely finding out.

In consequence of such misinformation the traveling public is frequently held around depots many unnecessary hours, both night and day, which might be profitably and conveniently spent in either transacting business or enjoying the comforts of home. We know of numerous instances of sickness being superinduced among aged or frail people in consequence of the long, tedious and oftentimes uncomfortable hours spent in waiting for belated trains at depots which were reported either on time or a few minutes late, but which in reality were several hours late, and which the depot agent could have possessed knowledge of had he taken the trouble to find out.

The average depot agent seems to labor under the delusion that he is a czar or other sort of puissant potentate, temporarily filling his position until a throne turns up. He is fearfully and wonderfully swelled up over his $60 per. There are exceptions, of course, some of them notable, as there are exceptions to all rules, but the general run acts upon the Vanderbiltian theory of "the public be damned." Their report on belated trains is a case in point, arising every day in the year.

The new railway commission can immortalize itself by putting rules in effect which will compel depot agents to tell. We have suffered from peddled misinformation long enough.—The Oklahoman.

STILL HOPEFUL OF BEAR.

Roosevelt and Party Will Beat the Canebreakers Again This Week.

Stamboul, La., Oct. 13.—The whole countryside turned out today in expectation of seeing the president take his departure from Stamboul for the south but in view of his change of plan the people were, of course, disappointed.

There was general expression of satisfaction, however, over his reconsideration of his determination to move to Tensas Parish for, now that the change is not to be made, Stamboul confesses candidly that she would have been much chagrined to have her distinguished guest go away with an empty bag before the time originally fixed.

General confidence in his success in the new camp on Bear Lake continues and the reports from there are uniformly favorable. Indeed, it is stated that a number of fresh trails were discovered yesterday and that on one occasion the party came upon a good-sized bear, but that on account of the absence of dogs he made his escape. The hope is very strong that when the hunt is resumed tomorrow either this animal or another member of his family will soon be run to earth. Many of the dogs used in last week's too strenuous search of the barren up-country are reported to be badly maimed and that an effort is being made to replace them with fres haulimals.

It is not believed by the president's associates that he will now make any change, but he has made no announcement on that point. All will depend upon the developments early in the week.

There is no doubt of the presence of game now, but it is very shy and may disappear in the presence of the hunters as it did from the Monticello camp.

The order for the special train which was to have made its appearance today was canceled last night, but it will be renewed if the president wishes to go south. The Tensas Parish people are reported as much disappointed over the failure of the president to carry out his program for a visit to their section.

Secretary Latta went out to the camp today.

FRANTZ WON'T LEAVE.

Says He Will Remain a Citizen of Oklahoma.

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 11.—Governor Frank Frantz has returned from Memphis, where he attended the deep waterways convention, after making the trip down the Mississippi with President Roosevelt. He will not discuss the talked of contests over the election nor will he say anything relative to the probable action of President Roosevelt. He intimates, however, that the change of the form of government from territorial to state, will come between the first and the fifth of November.

Regarding the many press reports concerning positions that are to be tendered him by President Roosevelt Governor Frantz without directly saying he would not accept another appointment, declared that he would not accept the United States marshalship and that he expected to accept some of the business propositions he has before him and remain a citizen of Oklahoma for a while.

Last Days of Creek Nation.

Ogmulgee, I. T., Oct. 11.—The Creek council has been in session six days and little, if any business of importance, has yet been transacted. In truth, it possesses but a shadow of authority and can only recommend, not execute, and all its recommendations require the O. K. of President Roosevelt before becoming effective.

Since the days of Logan the Mingo chief, the Indians have been credited with great oratorical power and the credit is not undeserved. The present council contains several red Demathones and Ciceros, whose burning eloquence charms the listener's ear and possesses the art of easily molding, binding the hearts of an audience till they beat in unison to that of the orator.

This morning after prayers by the chaplain, a fullblood Indian, the entire body of the House of Kings joined in singing a native air in their own language. Like an air in Italian opera, all could feel the effects of the music although the words of the singers were strange and unfamiliar.

In the words of a listener, "It got on one's nerves," and conquered by its very strangeness. Now soft and tender as a summer sephyr, softly sighing among the pine tops of a Tennessee mountain, it again took on a likeness to a barbaric chant, changing to a strain as of wild Hungarian music.

The present council will devote most of its time and attention to measures looking to a final settlement of the tribe with the United States government, and an equitable distribution of the tribal funds, amounting to between four and five million dollars, consisting of money long held in trust by the government, and the money arising from the sale of townsites.

The Creek school houses, with the land attached, and also the council house and other public buildings belonging to the natives must also be disposed of prior to statehood, the advent of which will bring about the annihilation of the Creek republic, a republic which had its origin in days antedating those of the American revolution; the Creek tribal government being republican in form.

A large portion of the tribal funds will be required for the purpose of equalizing allotments among the citizens. Each Creek citizen and Creek freedman receives an allotment of 160 acres of land, but the value of these allotments varied greatly, some of the land being appraised at only 50 cents per acre, the maximum appraised value. Now the appraised value of a Creek allotment of the best land is $1,040 and citizens and freedmen allotting land of less appraised value is entitled to an equalization payment, equal to the difference between the appraised value of their allotments and the appraised value of an allotment of maximum value, $1,040. For instance, a citizen has selected an allotment appraised at $150 per acre, the total value of which is only $240, he is therefore entitled to an equalization payment of $800, the difference in value between his allotment and that of one of maximum value. These payments will require a large amount of tribal funds and little, if any money, will be left for a per capita payment.

Many of the Creek or Muskogees as they call themselves are wealthy, independent of the tribal funds, and Creek country being the seat of the greatest development in oil recorded in the history of petroleum. The Glenn pool is already a record-breaker, with a present production of 75,000 barrels a day, a production that could be largely increased were the transportation facilities greater. The Standard Oil company has already tanked between 25 and 30 million barrels of oil in the mid-continent field and expended more than $50,000,000 in preparing for taking care of production. Whatever may be said in regard to some of its methods of doing business, it is always Johnnie on the spot when it comes to taking care of production, and most really, truly oil producers, speak kindly of it. And the Indians have benefited. Other fields in which the Indians are interested are Muskogee field which is again attracting attention by the bringing in of a well which when accurately gauged—not estimated—showed a production of 110 barrels per hour, a record breaker in the mid-continent field. Still another, the Morris field, ten miles east of this place, is already showing many good wells, and oil men are enthusiastically regard to its future.

THE OKLAHOMA CENTRAL AGAIN.

It is reported that a contract has been closed whereby Purcell secures the Oklahoma Central railway shops. Purcell was the logical location any way, since the Central railroad enterprise kind o' had its source in that town.

Ada had too much sense of town ethics to bid on the shops. At present she is content with hearing the trains whistle for the stop 1 1-2 miles away and with having a time card announced by the transfer men, who sometimes linger out on the right-of-way for half a day waiting for a train to come in.

But eventually, when the Central is openly absorbed by the Santa Fe or some other big system, probably a station house will be built for Ada—perchance even a spur will be built into Ada.

The fact is, the road never will look like anything or do anything much until it can blow its bituminous breath right into Ada's main thoroughfares.

Philosophers have mused over the subject of pleasing odors in their relation to the sense of smell, but have never determined just what the qualities are that appeal or why they appeal. LAST DAY OF U. S. COURT

In Session for a Few Hours to Shape
Up the Docket Against the Coming of Statehood—A Day for Lawyers Only.

In accordance with the adjournment
some two weeks ago, Judge J. T. Dickerson arrived in Ada Monday morning and convened United States district court for a day's session. Unless
the people are disappointed in securing statehood this winter this is the last sitting of the federal court in the city of Ada, and the next big court
will be presided over by Judge A. T.
West of Lehigh, district judge-elect.

The judge, upon having court called,
announced to the assembled lawyers
that they must get busy for he pur-
posed winding things up so he could get away on the 4 o'clock train, and they got busy. A sort of scramble ensued among the numerous attorneys,
each eager to get his cases trimmed
up in good shape against the coming
of statehood.

There was scarcely anyone present
save the court officers and the lawyers. There was no need for others,
since, as previously announced, the
session was solely to consider matters
of law in the nature of unfinished business, demanding the presence of neither jury nor witnesses nor clients. For several hours the judge and the clerk
were kept quite busy while the attorneys scrambled for recognition and pleaded for orders.

None of the court retinue accompanied the judge here, except C. G. Moore
deputy U. S. clerk.

Attorneys A. D. Andrews of Pauls
Valley, H. A. Kroeger of Francis and
Allen of Paris are attending U. S.
court here.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Hurd and G. H.
Chance of Francis were in Ada to-
day.

Mrs. J. C. VanMeter has returned from a visit in Miami. Her father, L.
M. Sipes, accompanied her home.

DOOM OF MIGHTY LONDON.

Fire About the Only Agent Which
Can Cause Its Destruction.

With hints of German invasion and
of an approaching earthquake the question "What will be the doom of London?" seems a not unreasonable
one. What will be the end of the great city? What will bring about the ruin over which Macaulay's New Zealanders is to cast his moralizing eye? Several answers may be given.
The destruction of London at the hands of a victorious invader is possible, but extremely improbable. London may be besieged, even bombarded; she cannot be destroyed. Flood?
This again may be dismissed as most improbable, and one calamity only remains to be considered, namely—fire.
Now, London has suffered more than once terribly from this cause, and in 1666 the city was practically wiped out. Every one knows this; but it is not every one who knows that the great conflagration was predicted 15
years before by Lilly, the astrologer,
and by another astrologer, Nostradamus, a century before that. Nostradamus cast his prediction in a French quadrant, the gist of which was that in 1666 London would be visited by a conflagration which would destroy St.
Paul's and 59 other churches.—Cassell's Saturday Journal.

Killed Himself for Love of Dog.

Back of the suicide of Fred Vogler,
a farmer of Cherry Ridge, Pa., who hanged himself in the woods near his home, is a story of love of great depth
in the heart of a man for his faithful dog. It is a story of a man's appreciation of a dog's life of devotion and of the man laying down
his life upon the altar of that friendship.

Rover always had a series of wags
of his tail and joyous barks for his master. The dog appeared happy
when with Vogler, and the master always showed a similar feeling. They were "chums."

Vogler's son, who was told to bring home some bread the other day,
forgot it. There was but one loaf
in the house, and the father insisted on giving a big share of that to the
dog. A quarrel between members of the family followed. He tossed most of the bread to Rover. Then the quarrel was renewed. The man threatened suicide. He hurried toward the woods, sawed a rope over the limb of a tree, placed a noose
around his neck and jumped off the
box on which he was standing.—Philadelphia Ledger.

What a Barber Is.

A friend of Oliver Herford, the art ist and author, enjoys nothing more than to elicit a witticism from him by means of a series of odd questions.
He said one day:
"Oliver, have you ever talked with a conceited German barber, one of those individuals whose head is perfectly round, like an orange, and whose hair stands up straight, like hog's bristles?"

"Hoodlum" and "Hooligan."

"Hoodlum," America's equivalent of the English word "hooligan," was coined at San Francisco very early in the '70s, but did not become generally popular in the United States
until about 1877, by which time all certainty as to its origin was lost. One version is that the leader of the San Francisco "larrikin push" was a man named Muldoon, whose name a newspaper writer ingeniously reversed to christen his gang "hoodlums," and a composer's mistake of "n" for "h"
did the rest. Another explanation is that "Huddle 'em!" was the San Francisco rowdies' cry when the police appeared, and a third alludes to a curious fez or "hood" worn by an eccentric character, which the young rowdies adopted as their uniform.

With a Proviso.

"When universal peace is finally established," said Alfred H. Love, the president of the Universal Peace Union, in an interview in Philadelphia,
"then many a man who now ridicules
the peace movement will claim to have been its lifelong champion. It is always so. We thump and kick a poor, weak, struggling movement at its inception, and when it has succeeded and no longer needs our help, we give it the most scintillating support.
There was once a young lady whose betrothed, a very poor young man, was about to set out for South America to seek his fortune in the rubber trade. As he took his leave of her the night before his departure, he said, tremulously: 'And you swear to be true to me, Irene?' 'Yes, Heber,' cried
the girl; 'yes—if you're successful.'"

TWO DOORS WEST OF COURT HOUSE

TO PROVE UP PONTOTOC.

McClure and King Go to Guthrie With Election Records.

In response to the state canvassing board's demands for the full returns from each county, provisional county clerk S. T. McClure of Roff and County Election Commissioner B. C. King left Sunday afternoon for Guthrie armed to the teeth to show the board that Pontotoc county's vote is all right just as heretofore certified.

Mr. McClure has been faithfully serving the county for months, assisting in the necessary preliminaries to statehood, and Mr. King helped materially in conducting the election of Sept. 17, and in the task of receiving and tabulating the returns.

Together, the two gentlemen should be able to convince the board, however, partisan it may be, that every thing went straight in Pontotoc.

Not Fighting Gave.

Guthrie, Ok., Oct. 13.—Col. Roy Hoffman of Chandler, Ok., who was defeated in the three-cornered race for United States senator from the Oklahoma side in the democratic primary, today gave out a hat denial that he was interested in seeing T. P. Gore of Lawton, the successful candidate, defeated by the legislature.

"I am not in sympathy with the idea which seems to have been expressed that Mr. Gore will be defeated by a so-called 'dark horse,'" said Col. Hoffman, "and would oppose any movement along that line. Mr. Gore went before the people of Oklahoma and received more votes than I or the other candidates, consequently, under democratic rule and the principle upon which a primary is based, he is the choice of the greatest number of people, and should not be disturbed."

Cattle Train Wrecked.

Tulsa, I. T., Oct. 13.—A St. Louis and San Francisco eastbound fast stock train was wrecked at Tanahasi siding, eight miles west of Tulsa, last night. The tender and eight cars, six of which were loaded with cattle, went into the ditch and considerable damage was done. The wreck blocked the road to traffic until late today, all trains having to detour by way of Okmulgee and Muskogee.

Steamer Sinks: 21 of Crew Lost.

Sainte Ste Marie, Mich., Oct. 13.—The steel steamer Cyprus owned by the Lackawanna Transportation company and on her second trip down the lakes with a cargo of ore was wrecked Friday night in Lake Superior off Deer Park, which is about 30 miles from Grand Marais, and all of the crew of 22, excepting the second mate, were lost. He was washed ashore near Deer Park Island lashed to a life raft, barely alive. He is in a critical condition and thus far he has been able to tell only that he is the only survivor of the steamer Cyprus. He is receiving careful medical attention in the hospital. He has suffered terribly from cold and exposure in addition to battering of the waves.

The names of but five of the drowned members of the crew are definitely known.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Oct. 14.—The National Farmers' Association, with a membership extending throughout the United States and Canada, will convene in this city on Oct. 17 for its annual meeting which will extend for five days. Three thousand delegates are expected to be present, a large majority of whom will come from Oklahoma.

Many prominent men will address the association, among them Governor Cummins of Iowa, Gov. Broward of Florida and Gov. Franz of Oklahoma.

Thirty Clerks on Hand.

Guthrie, Ok., Oct. 13.—Thirty county clerks are here with poll books, tally sheets and certification of votes on the constitution and prohibition for delivery to the canvassing board tomorrow morning. It was announced today that Oklahoma county would not deliver its data until the question of delivery is tested in the courts. Beaver county is likewise reported.

The work of preparing a certified copy of the constitution for the president will not begin until the board completes its canvass, which, it is asserted, will cause additional delay.

TYING UP ELECTION CANVASS

Evidence Accumulates that Hunter and His Crowd Plan to Keep Republican County Clerks Away from Guthrie, Resulting in Indefinite Delay.

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 13.—Despite the protestations of Charles E. Hunter, the republican state chairman who conducted the losing campaign, James R. Cottingham, his attorney, and the three federal office-holders who constitute the state returning board, alleging that their action in delaying the canvass of the vote on the constitution was not intended to defeat statehood, the democrats have come into what they consider substantial evidence that the republican state committee is using its influence secretly to prevent the eleven republican county clerks in the state from complying with the request of the returning board by producing in Guthrie the original request of the returning board. Blackburn says he will not bring the returns to Guthrie, nor leave them out of his possession unless compelled to do so by an order from the courts. This is believed by the democrats to be the position which will be taken by all the republican county clerks.

In addition to their secret instructions to republican clerks, the statehood obstructionists are attempting to prevent democratic clerks from complying with the request of the returning board. Several instances of these threats of arrest have been reported from over the state, one of the most flagrant being in Comanche county inal poll books and tally sheets of the constitutional election.

As primary evidence of the existence of such a plot is taken the fact that while democratic county clerks from remote sections of the state like Harper, Oklahoma and Mayes counties responded promptly to the request of the board and have turned over to them the required records, not a single republican county clerk has yet appeared in Guthrie. This is the more noticeable from the fact that practically all of the republican county clerks are in localities easily accessible to this city.

A further incriminating circumstance, pointing to Hunter as the ring leader of the plot is that after agreeing to meet Chairman Thompson of the democratic committee in a conference on the matter Friday morning, Hunter failed to put in an appearance and refused absolutely to meet with Thompson. The meeting between the two chairmen was proposed by the republican returning board, and was to be held for the purpose of arranging for a mutual effort on their part to secure the speedy bringing of the returns to Guthrie.

H. S. Blackburn, county clerk of Oklahoma county is the first republican to announce his intention to ignore the board and the republican plotters.

where J. E. Dyer, present territorial auditor and defeated republican candidate for state auditor, is quoted as having told the county clerk that if he took the poll books and tally sheets to Guthrie in compliance with the ruling of the board, that Chairman Hunter would have him arrested and prosecuted for a violation of the territorial statutes.

The purpose hoped to be accomplished by these proceedings apparently is a delay of statehood. If the republican clerks refuse to bring the returns to Guthrie, it is believed by Hunter and his crowd, that the returning board will have to go into court and attempt proceedings of this kind before courts presided over by partisan republicans whose salaries continue only so long as they find excuse to delay a decision, probably would require months if not years to bring to an issue.

While the cases dragged their slow way through the carpathian courts the federal officeholders would continue to draw their salaries, the saloons would continue to dispense liquors and the railroads would continue to rob the people by exorbitant freight rates.

C. N. Haskell, the democratic governor-elect is on the ground and watching every move of the returning board and the republican plotters.

R. E. HAYNES

The Hardware Man. Ada, Okla.

He is besieged throughout the day with telephone messages and telegrams from citizens of both territories, offering any assistance in their power and bitterly upbraiding Hunter and his conspirators. The tenor of many of the communications indicates that the patience of the people is well nigh exhausted with the high-binding methods being pursued by the opponents of statehood, but Haskell is constantly counselling moderation and urging his friends to refrain from inflammatory utterance or actions.

In discussing the recent ruling of the board concerning the returns Mr. Haskell said tonight:

"Considering the fact that the election was held and the returns made to the state canvassing board upon blanks furnished by the election board controlled by Frank Frantz and Secretary Filson and exactly in accordance with the instructions sent out by Frantz and Filson, the Oklahoma statutes and the election ordinance, I am at a loss to see any reasonable or legal reason for this change. The democrats are ready, however, to go to any reasonable length to follow the requirements of the Clayton-Filson-Burford board. In any way of looking at it, it will devolve on the members of this board to purge themselves before the people of any suspicion that may justly attach to their conduct.

"While we are willing to aid in meeting the unusual requirements of this partisan election board, it is not because we believe these requirements are legal, but only because we are willing to do anything in reason that will aid in securing statehood. We are willing for the present, on the same considerations, to withhold what we believe to be just criticism until the developments of the next few days shall have proven if there is any improper motive back of this radical change of ruling from the former holding of the Frantz-Filson board.

Entered as second-class mail matter March 28, 1904, at the post office at Ada, Indian Territory, under No. 1077. Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Act of Congress, March 3, 1909.

DELAYING STATEHOOD.

The poterie of statehood obstructionists, led by Chairman Hunter, of the republican state committee, has succeeded in prevailing upon the state returning board to delay the canvass of the vote cast at the recent election long enough to bring the returns from each county to Guthrie in order that they may be counted again. Their purpose in this matter is not difficult to divine if they cannot defeat statehood, they can, at least, delay it, and that is something to the army of carpetbaggers who are about to be kicked out upon a cold, unfeeling world with no alternative save going to work.

The ruling of the returning board in this matter is somewhat amazing. It ignores the finding of the Oklahoma supreme court and sets aside the instructions of Governor Frantz and Secretary Filson to the election of officers of the state which were sent out immediately preceding the late election.

A good many strange things occur in connection with the administration of affairs under a territorial form of government where no one connected with it is amenable to the people. In this instance we can only conjecture the object of the returning board in holding that it is a waste of time to take as charitable a view of the case as possible we will assume that it is proceeding in the discharge of its duties as the law directs and is bent upon finding some foundation in fact for Chairman Hunter's trumped-up affidavits. It is its purpose we feel like straining a joint with it in order that something may be done to quiet Mr. Hunter's frightened soul and silence his baseless cries of fraud.

In the meantime statehood can wait. What matters it if a million and a half American citizens are denied the boon of self-government for a few weeks or a few months, or a few years so long as Mr. Hunter and his coterie of statehood obstructionists are disposed to demur to the inevitable. What matters it if we never get statehood while the Hunter affidavits mull in working order? And why complain if returning boards go out of their way to help the gamblers along?

In passing however let us admonish the people to possess their souls in patience and peace. The days of the carpetbagger are numbered and the people are about to come into their own. That 164,000 majority for the constitution is too much for the statehood obstructionists and no matter if they choose to have their dirtiest as they evidently do, they can only delay the inevitable and incidentally make democratic votes. The Oklahoma man.

State Will Have 41 Dispensaries.
Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 14.—Under the prohibition clause of the constitution providing a liquor dispensary for every town of 2,000 population or more in the new state there will be 41 such dispensary towns in Oklahoma. Of these 21 will be in Oklahoma Territory and 21 in Indian Territory. Only two counties will have two dispensaries. Coal and Kay where Blackwell and Ponca City in the latter are both entitled under the recent census to be so designated and Colgate and Lehigh in the former.

The towns where dispensaries will be located are:

HASKELL'S PLURITY 27,736

Canvass of Vote for Eight State Officers Completed.

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 13.—The state election board Saturday completed canvassing the returns on eight of the state officers including governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, superintendent of public instruction and state accountant.

The returns from the following four counties were not included in the canvass, for the reason that numerous precincts are missing and it was decided to await until a full canvassing board is present before these counties are taken up.

Muskogee with five precincts missing, Okfuskee with two, Wagoner with six and Cimarron with eleven. With these counties not included, the total vote on governor is as follows:

Frank Frantz, (rep.) 105,309 C. N. Haskell, (dem.) 131,397, Ross, (soc.) 9,476 Haskell's plurality 27,736 and majority 18,312. The total vote on governor was 244,282 as compared with 249,709 on the constitution.

For secretary of state William Cross, (dem.) has 33,330 majority over Thomas Rohmet, (rep.) for lieutenant governor George Bellamy, (dem.) 32,480 over N. G. Turk, (rep.) for auditor Ed Trapp, (dem.) 31,018 over J. E. Dyche, (rep.) for superintendent of public instruction E. D. Cameron, (dem.) 33,099 over Calvin Ballard, (rep.) for treasurer J. A. Menefee, (dem.) 32,332 over Mortimer Stillwell, (rep.) for attorney general Charles West, (dem.) 33,570 over Silas Reid, (rep.) and for state accountant Charles Taylor, (dem.) 33,298 over John S. Fischer, (rep.)

In all probability these majorities will be increased somewhat by the complete returns.

For secretary of state Cross received a total of 130,621 votes. Rohmet 97,291 and Watrons 1,434.

For lieutenant governor Bellamy received 129,611. Turk 97,219 and Crevier 1,402.

For auditor Trapp received 128,006. Dyche 97,038 and Davis 1,401.

For public instruction Cameron received 130,083. Ballard 96,980. Hanna 1,401.

For treasurer Menefee has 129,611. Stillwell 97,236. Ash 1,401.

For attorney general West has 129,636. Reid 96,866. Marsh 1,401.

For state accountant Taylor received 129,952. Fischer 96,653. Dunn 1,401.

REPORTS ON BELATED TRAINS.

The Custer County News of Clinton makes an apt suggestion in advising the traveling public to register a kick with the new state railway commission against the practice in vogue among most railway agents of reporting trains 10 minutes late which in reality are from one to four hours delay.

As a general rule the Oklahoman is constitutionally opposed to regulation by law all the ills which human flesh is heir to. Yet this is one which has grown so rampant in this region that the time has come when we will look with complacency upon the adoption of any corrective methods.

There is really no good reason why depot agents should deliberately (we hesitate to say it yet are unable to find any other word adequately expressing it) lie to the traveling public about the arrival and departure of trains particularly belated trains. They do it however every day in the year not particularly because there is anything in the rules of the company requiring it but because they seemingly find a fiendish delight in disappointing those who are compelled to use the trains as a means of conveyance. Indeed it is the common practice among depot agents to report trains belated from two to five hours from 30 minutes to an hour late when they ought to know better or at least have the means at hand for definitely finding out.

In consequence of such misinformation the traveling public is frequently held around depots many unnecessary hours both night and day which might be profitably and conveniently spent in either transacting business or enjoying the comforts of home. We know of numerous instances of sickness being superinduced among aged or frail people in consequence of the long tedious and oftentimes uncomfortable hours spent in waiting for belated trains at depots which were reported either on time or a few minutes late but which in reality were several hours late, and which the depot agent could have possessed knowledge of had he taken the trouble to find out.

The average depot agent seems to labor under the delusion that he is a czar or other sort of potentate, temporarily filling his position until a throne turns up. He is fearfully and wonderfully swelled up over his $60 per year. There are exceptions, of course, some of them notable, as there are exceptions to all rules, but the general run acts upon the Vanderbiltian theory of the public be damned. Their report on belated trains is a case in point, arising every day in the year. The new railway commission can immortalize itself by putting rules in effect which will compel depot agents to tell us we have suffered from peddled misinformation long enough—the Oklahoman.

STILL HOPEFUL OF BEAR.

Roosevelt and Party Will Beat the Gamebrakes Again This Week.

Stamboul, La., Oct. 13.—The whole countryside turned out today in expectation of seeing the president take his departure from Stamboul for the south but in view of his change of plan the people were, of course, disappointed.

There was general expression of satisfaction, however, over his reconsideration of his determination to move to Texas. Parish for, now that the change is not to be made, Stamboul confesses candidly that she would have been much chagrined to have her distinguished guest go away with an empty bag before the time originally fixed.

General confidence in his success in the new camp on Bear Lake continues and the reports from there are uniformly favorable. Indeed it is stated that a number of fresh trails were discovered yesterday and that on one occasion the party came upon a good-sized bear but that on account of the absence of dogs he made his escape. The hope is very strong that when the hunt is resumed tomorrow either this animal or another member of his family will soon be run to earth. Many of the dogs used in last week's too strenuous search of the barren up-country are reported to be badly mauled and that an effort is being made to replace them with fies haulimals.

It is not believed by the president's associates that he will now make any change but he has made no announcement on that point. All will depend upon the developments daily in the week.

There is no doubt of the presence of game now but it is very shy and may disappear in the presence of the hunters as it did from the Monticello camp.

The order for the special train which was to leave made its appearance today was canceled last night but it will be renewed if the president wishes to go south. The Texas people are reported as much disappointed over the failure of the president to carry out his program for a visit to their section.

Secretary Lattin went out to the camp today.

FRANTZ WON'T LEAVE.

Says He Will Remain a Citizen of Oklahoma.

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 11.—Governor Frank Frantz has returned from Memphis where he attended the deep waterways convention after making the trip down the Mississippi with President Roosevelt. He will not discuss the talked of contests over the election nor will he say anything relative to the probable action of President Roosevelt. He intimates however that the change of the form of government from territorial to state will come between the first and the fifteenth of November.

Regarding the many press reports concerning positions that are to be tendered him by President Roosevelt Governor Frantz without directly saying he would not accept another appointment, declared that he would not accept the United States marshalship and that he expected to accept some of the business propositions he has before him and remain a citizen of Oklahoma for a while.

Last Days of Creek Nation.

Ogmulgee, T. Oct. 11.—The Creek council has been in session six days and little if any business of importance has yet been transacted. In truth it possesses but a shadow of authority and can only recommend, not execute, and all its recommendations require the O. K. of President Roosevelt before becoming effective.

Since the days of Logan the Mingo chief, the Indians have been credited with great oratorical power and the credit is not undeserved. The present council contains several red Demosthenes and Ciceros, whose burning eloquence charms the listener's ear and possess the art of easily molding blinding the hearts of an audience till they heat in unison to that of the orator.

This morning after prayers by the chaplain a fullblood Indian, the entire body of the House of Kings joined in singing a native air in their own language. Like an air in Italian opera, all could feel the effects of the music although the words of the singers were strange and unfamiliar.

In the words of a listener. It got on one's nerves, and conquered by its very strangeness. Now soft and tender as a summer sephyr softly sighing among the pine tops of a Tennessee mountain. It again took on a likeness to a barbaric chant changing to a strain as of wild Hungarian music.

The present council will devote most of its time and attention to measures looking to a final settlement of the title with the United States government and an equitable distribution of the tribal funds amounting to $12,000,000 and five million dollars consisting of money long held in trust by the government and the money arising from the sale of townships.

The Creek school houses, with the land attached and also the council house and other public buildings belonging to the natives must also be disposed of prior to statehood the advent of which will bring about the annihilation of the Creek republic a republic which had its origin in days antedating those of the American revolution. The Creek tribal government being republican in form.

A large portion of the tribal funds will be required for the purpose of equalizing allotments among the citizens. Each Creek citizen and Creek freedman receives an allotment of 160 acres of land but the value of these allotments varied greatly. Some of the land being appraised at only 30 cents per acre the maximum appraised value. Now the appraised value of a Creek allotment of the best land is $1,140 and citizens and freedmen allotting land of less appraised value is entitled to an equalization payment equal to the difference between the appraised value of their allotments and the appraised value of $1,140. For instance a citizen has selected an allotment appraised at $170 per acre the total value of which is only $340 he is therefore entitled to an equalization payment of $80 the difference in value between his allotment and that of one of maximum value. These payments will require a large amount of tribal funds and little if any money will be left for a per capita payment.

Many of the Creek or Muskogees as they call themselves are wealthy independent of the tribal funds and Creek country home, the seat of the greatest development in oil recorded in the history of petroleum. The Creek pool is already a record breaker with a present production of 75,000 barrels a day a production that could be largely increased were the transportation facilities greater. The Standard Oil company has already tanked between 25 and 30 million barrels of oil in the mid-continent field and expended more than $50,000,000 in preparing for taking care of production. Whatever may be said in regard to some of its methods of doing business it is always profitable on the spot when it comes to taking care of production and most really truly oil producers speak kindly of it. And the Indians have benefited other fields in which the Indians are interested are Muskogee field which is again attracting attention by the bringing in of a well which when accurately gauged—not estimated—showed a production of 110 barrels per hour a record breaker in the mid-continent field. Still another in the Morris field ten miles east of this place is already showing many good wells and oil men are enthusiastic regard to its future.

LAST DAY OF U. S. COURT

In Session for a Few Hours to Shape
Up the Docket Against the Coming of Statehood—A Day for Lawyers Only.

In accordance with the adjournment
some two weeks ago, Judge J. T. Dick-
erson arrived in Ada Monday morning and convened United States district court for a day's session. Unless
the people are disappointed in securing statehood this winter this is the
last sitting of the federal court in the city of Ada, and the next big court
will be presided over by Judge A. T.
West of Lehigh district judge-elect.

The judge, upon having court called,
announced to the assembled lawyers
that they must get busy for he pur-
posed winding things up so he could
get away on the 4 o'clock train, and
they got busy. A sort of scramble en-
sued among the numerous attorneys,
each eager to get his cases trimmed
up in good shape against the coming
of statehood.

There was scarcely anyone present
save the court officers and the lawyers. There was no need for others,
since, as previously announced, the
session was solely to consider matters
of law in the nature of unfinished business, demanding the presence of neither jury nor witnesses nor clients. For several hours the judge and the clerk
were kept quite busy while the attorneys scrambled for recognition and
pleaded to orders.

None of the court routine accompanied the judge here except U. G. Moore
deputy U. S. clerk.

Attorneys A. D. Andrews of Pauls
Valley, H. A. Kroeger of Francis and
Allen of Paris are attending U. S.
court here.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Hurd and G. H.
Chance of Francis were in Ada to-
day.

from a visit in Minn. Her father, L.

DOOM OF NIGHTY LONDON

The "About the Only Agent Which
Can Cause Its Destruction"

With hints of German invasion and
of an approaching earthquake the
question "What will be the doom of London?" seems a not unreasonable
one. What will be the end of the great city? What will bring about its ruin over which Macaulay's New Zealand is to cast his morbid
glance? Several answers may be given.
The destruction of London at the
hands of a victorious invader is possible but extremely improbable. London may be besieged even bombarded
but it cannot be destroyed. Flood?
This again may be dismissed as most improbable and a calamity only likely to be considered mainly—like New London has suffered more than once terribly from this cause and in 1866 the city was practically wiped
out. Every one knows this but it is not every one who knows that the great configuration was predicted 15 years before by 1001 the astrologer
and by another a trolloger. Nostrada must cast his prediction in a French quadrant in the first of which was that in 1666 London would be visited by
conflagration which would destroy St.
Paul's and 99 other churches—Cas-selle's Saturnian.

Killed Himself for Love of Dog.
Back of the outside of Fred Vogler,
a farmer of Cherry Ridge Pa., who haunted himself in the woods near his home is a story of love of great depth
in the heart of a man for his faithful dog. It is a story of a man's appreciation of a dog's life of devotion and of the man laying down
his life upon the altar of that friendship.

Rover always had a series of wags
of his tail and joyous barks for his
master. The dog appeared happy
when with Vogler, and the master always showed a similar feeling. They
were "chums."

Vogler's son, who was told to bring some game bread the other day
forgot it. There was but one loaf
in the house, and the father insisted
on giving a big share of that to the
dog. A quarrel between members of the family followed. He tossed most of the bread to Rover. Then the quarrel was renewed. The man
threatened suicide. He hurried to the woods sawed a rope over
the limb of a tree placed a noose
around his neck and jumped off the
box on which he was standing—Philadelphia Ledger.

He said one day:

"Oliver, have you ever talked with a

individuals whose head is perfectly
round, like an orange, and whose hair
stands up straight, like a hog's hair-brush?"

"Hooligan" America's equivalent of the English word "hoodlum" was coined at San Francisco very early
in the 70s but did not become generally popular in the United States
until about 1877 by which time all certainly as to its origin was lost. One version is that the leader of the San Francisco "larikin" push was a man named Muldoon whose name a newspaper writer ingeniously reversed to
christen his gang "hoodlums," and a
composer's mistake of "n" for "h"
did the rest. Another explanation is
that "Huddle 'em" was the San Francisco rowdies' cry when the police
appeared, and a third alludes to a curious faze or "hood" worn by an eccentric character, which the young
rowdies adopted as their uniform.

TWO DOORS WEST OF COURT HOUSE

TO PROVE UP PONTOTOC.

McClure and King Come to Guthrie With Election Records.

In response to the state canvassing board's demands for the full returns from each county, provisional county clerk, S. T. McClure of Roff and County Election Commissioner H. C. King left Sunday afternoon for Guthrie armed to the teeth to show the board that Pontotoc county's vote is all right just as heretofore certified.

Mr. McClure has been faithfully serving the county for months, assisting in the necessary preliminaries to statehood, and Mr. King helped materially in conducting the election of Sept. 17 and in the task of receiving and tabulating the returns.

Together, the two gentlemen should be able to convince the board, however, partisan it may be, that every thing went straight in Pontotoc.

Not Fighting Gore.

Guthrie, Ok., Oct. 13.—Col. Roy Hoffman of Chandler, Ok., who was defeated in the three-cornered race for United States senator from the Oklahoma side in the democratic primary, today gave out a flat denial that he was interested in seeing T. P. Gore of Lawton, the successful candidate, defeated by the legislature.

"I am not in sympathy with the idea which seems to have been expressed that Mr. Gore will be defeated by a so-called 'dark horse,'" said Col. Hoffman, "and would oppose any movement along that line. Mr. Gore went before the people of Oklahoma and received more votes than I or the other candidates, consequently, under democratic rule and the principle upon which a primary is based, he is the choice of the greatest number of people and should not be disturbed."

Cattle Train Wrecked.

Tulsa, I. T., Oct. 13.—A St. Louis and San Francisco eastbound fast stock train was wrecked at Tanabash siding, eight miles west of Tulsa, last night. The tender and eight cars, six of which were loaded with cattle, went in to the ditch and considerable damage was done. The wreck blocked the road to traffic until late today, all trains having to detour by way of Okmulgee and Muskogee.

Steamer Sinks: 21 of Crew Lost.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Oct. 13.—The steel steamer Cyprus owned by the Lackawanna Transportation company and on her second trip down the lakes with a cargo of ore was wrecked Friday night in Lake Superior off Deer Park, which is about 30 miles from Grand Marais, and all of the crew of 22, excepting the second mate, were lost. He was washed ashore near Deer Park Island lashed to a life raft, barely alive. Held in a critical condition and thus far he has been able to tell only that he is the only survivor of the steamer Cyprus. He is receiving careful medical attention in the hospital. He has suffered terribly from cold and exposure in addition to lacerating of the waves.

The names of but five of the drowned members of the crew are definitely known.

National Farmers' Meeting.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Oct. 14.—The National Farmers' Association, with a membership extending throughout the United States and Canada, will convene in this city on Oct. 17 for its annual meeting which will extend for five days. Three thousand delegates are expected to be present, a large majority of whom will come from Oklahoma.

Many prominent men will address the association, among them Governor Cummins of Iowa, Gov. Broward of Florida and Gov. Franz of Oklahoma.

Thirty Clerks on Hand.

Guthrie, Ok., Oct. 13.—Thirty county clerks are here with poll books, tally sheets and certification of votes on the constitution and prohibition for delivery to the canvassing board tomorrow morning. It was announced today that Oklahoma county would not deliver its data until the question of delivery is tested in the courts. Beaver county is likewise reported.

The work of preparing a certified copy of the constitution for the president will not begin until the board completes its canvass, which, it is asserted, will cause additional delay.

TYING UP ELECTION CANVASS

Evidence Accumulates that Hunter and His Crowd Plan to Keep Republican County Clerks Away from Guthrie, Resulting in Indefinite Delay.

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 13.—Despite the protestations of Charles E. Hunter, the republican state chairman who conducted the losing campaign, James R. Cottingham, his attorney, and the three federal office-holders who constitute the state returning board, alleging that their action in delaying the canvass of the vote on the constitution was not intended to defeat statehood, the democrats have come into what they consider substantial evidence that the republican state committee is using its influence secretly to prevent the eleven republican county clerks in the state from complying with the request of the returning board by producing in Guthrie the original request of the returning board. Blackburn says he will not bring the returns to Guthrie, nor leave them go out of his possession unless compelled to do so by an order from the courts. This is believed by the democrats to be the position which will be taken by all the republican county clerks.

In addition to their secret instructions to republican clerks, the statehood obstructionists are attempting, by threats of arrest and intimidation, to prevent democratic clerks from complying with the request of the returning board. Several instances of these threats of arrest have been reported from over the state, one of the most flagrant being in Comanche county nal poll books and tally sheets of the constitutional election.

As primary evidence of the existence of such a plot is taken the fact that while democratic county clerks from remote sections of the state like Harper, Okfuskee and Mayes counties responded promptly to the request of the board and have turned over to them the required records, not a single republican county clerk has yet appeared in Guthrie. This is the more noticeable from the fact that practically all of the republican county clerks are in localities easily accessible to this city.

A further incriminating circumstance, pointing to Hunter as the ring-leader of the plot is that after agreeing to meet Chairman Thompson of the democratic committee in a conference on the matter Friday morning, Hunter failed to put in an appearance and refused absolutely to meet with Thompson. The meeting between the two chairmen was proposed by the republican returning board, and was to be held for the purpose of arranging for a mutual effort on their part to secure the speedy bringing of the returns to Guthrie.

H. S. Blackburn, county clerk of Oklahoma county, is the first republican to announce his intention to ignore the returning board and the republican platform.

where J. E. Dyer, present territorial auditor and defeated republican candidate for state auditor, is quoted as having told the county clerk that if he took the poll books and tally sheets to Guthrie in compliance with the ruling of the board, that Chairman Hunter would have him arrested and prosecuted for a violation of the territorial statutes.

The purpose hoped to be accomplished by these proceedings apparently is a delay of statehood. If the republican clerks refuse to bring the returns to Guthrie, it is believed by Hunter and his crowd, that the returning board will have to go into court and attempt proceedings of this kind before courts presided over by partisan republicans whose salaries continue only so long as they find excuse to delay a decision, probably would require months if not years to bring to an issue.

While the cases dragged their slow way through the carpetbag courts the federal officeholders would continue to draw their salaries, the railroads would continue to rob the people by exorbitant freight rates.

C. N. Haskell, the democratic governor-elect is on the ground and watching every move of the returning board and the republican platform.

R. E. HAYNES

The Hardware Man, Ada, Okla.

He is besieged throughout the day with telephone messages and telegrams from citizens of both territories, offering any assistance in their power and bitterly upbraiding Hunter and his co-conspirators. The tenor of many of the communications indicates that the patience of the people is well nigh exhausted with the high-binding methods being pursued by the opponents of statehood, but Haskell is constantly counseling moderation and urging his friends to refrain from inflammatory utterance or actions.

In discussing the recent ruling of the board concerning the returns Mr. Haskell said tonight: "Considering the fact that the election was held and the returns made to the state canvassing board upon blanks furnished by the election board controlled by Frank Frantz and Secretary Filson and exactly in accordance with the instructions sent out by Frantz and Filson, the Oklahoma statutes and the election ordinance, I am at a loss to see any reasonable or legal reason for this change. The democrats are ready, however, to go to any reasonable length to follow the requirements of the Clayton-Filson-Burford board. In any way of looking at it, it will devolve on the members of this board to purge themselves before the people of any suspicion that may justly attach to their conduct.

"While we are willing to aid in meeting the unusual requirements of this partisan election board, it is not because we believe these requirements are legal, but only because we are willing to do anything in reason that will aid in securing statehood. We are willing for the present, on the same considerations, to withhold what we believe to be just criticism until the developments of the next few days shall have proven if there is any improper motive back of this radical change of ruling from the former holding of the Frantz-Filson board.

"We are forced to the conclusion, however, from the simple fact that the ruling was made, that no effort is being spared on their part to defeat statehood."

DELAYING STATEHOOD.

The attitude of statehood obstructionists, led by Chairman Hunter, of the republican state committee, has succeeded in prevailing upon the state returning board to delay the canvass of the vote cast at the recent election long enough to bring the returns from each county to Guthrie in order that they may be counted again. Their purpose in this matter is not difficult to divine. If they cannot defeat statehood, they can, at least, delay it, and that is something to the army of carpetbaggers who are about to be kicked out upon a cold, unfeeling world with no alternative save going to work.

The ruling of the returning board in this matter is somewhat amazing. It ignores the finding of the Oklahoma supreme court and sets aside the instructions of Governor Frantz and Secretary Pilson to the election of officers of the state which were sent out immediately preceding the late election.

A good many strange things occur in connection with the administration of affairs under a territorial form of government where no one connected with it is amenable to the people. In this instance we can only conjecture the object of the returning board in holding that it is a la wunto itself. To take as charitable a view of the case as possible we will assume that it is proceeding in the discharge of its duties in the law direct and is bent upon finding some foundation in fact for Chairman Hunter's trumped-up affidavits. If this is its purpose we feel like straining a point with it in order that something may be done to quiet Mr. Hunter's frightened soul and silence his baseless cries of fraud.

In the meantime statehood can wait. What matters it if a million and a half American citizens are denied the boon of self-government for a few weeks or a few months, or a few years so long as Mr. Hunter and his cohorts of statehood obstructionists are disposed to demur to the inevitable. What matters it if we never let statehood while the Hunter affidavit mill is in working order? And why complain if returning boards go out of their way to help the game along?

In passing however let us admonish the people to possess their souls in patience and peace. The days of the carpetbagger are numbered and the people are about to come into their own. That 104,000 majority for the constitution is too much for the statehood obstructionists and no matter if they choose to do their dirtiest as they evidently have they can only delay the inevitable and incidentally make democratic votes—the Oklahoma man.

State Will Have 41 Dispensaries.
Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 14.—Under the prohibition clause of the constitution providing a liquor dispensary for every town of 1,000 population or more in the new state there will be 41 such dispensary towns in Oklahoma. Canvass of Vote for Eight State Officers Completed.

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 13.—The state election board Saturday completed canvassing the returns on eight of the state officers including governor, lieutenant-governor, secretary of state, superintendent of public instruction and state accountant.

The returns from the following four counties were not included in the canvass, for the reason that numerous precincts are missing and it was decided to await until a full canvassing board is present before these counties are taken up.

Muskogee with five precincts missing, Okfuskee with two, Wagoner with six and Cimarron with eleven. With these counties not included, the total vote on governor is as follows: Frank Frantz, (rep.) 108,309; C. N. Haskell, (dem.) 131,297; Ross, (soc.) 9,476. Haskell's plurality 27,736 and majority 18,812. The total vote on governor was 244,282 as compared with 243,709 on the constitution.

For secretary of state William Cross (dem.) has 33,330 majority over Thomas Rohmet, (rep.) for lieutenant-governor George Bellamy, (dem.) 32,480 over N. G. Turk, (rep.) for auditor Ed Trapp, (dem.) 31,018 over I. E. Dyche, (rep.) for superintendent of public instruction E. D. Cameron, (dem.) 33,099 over Calvin Ballard, (rep.) for treasurer I. A. Muehle, (dem.) 32,332 over Mortimer Stillwell, (rep.) for attorney general Charles West, (dem.) 33,570 over Silas Reid, (rep.) and for state accountant Charles Taylor, (dem.) 33,298 over John S. Fischer, (rep.)

In all probability these majorities will be increased somewhat by the complete returns.

For secretary of state Cross received a total of 138,625 votes. Rohmet 97,295 and Watrons, (soc.) 9,334.

For lieutenant-governor Bellamy received 129,631. Turk 97,219 and Carey, (soc.) 9,002.

For auditor Trapp received 31,018. Dyche 27,038 and Davis, (soc.) 9,401.

For public instruction Cameron received 140,083. Ballard 96,990. Hanna, (soc.) 9,034.

For treasurer Menefer has 129,613. Stillwell 97,286. Ash, (soc.) 9,034.

For attorney general West has 10,636. Reid 96,866. Marsh, (soc.) 9,279.

For state accountant Taylor received 129,952. Fischer 96,653. Dunn, (soc.) 9,295.

REPORTS ON BELATED TRAINS.

The Custer County News of Clinton makes an apt suggestion in advising the traveling public to register a kick with the new state railway commission against the practice in some amount most railway agents of reporting trains 10 minutes late which in reality are from one to four hours delayed.

As a general rule the Oklahoma man is constitutionally opposed to regulation by law all the ills which human flesh is heir to. Yet this is one which has grown so flagrant in this region that the time has come when we will look with complacency upon the adoption of any collective methods.

There is really no good reason why depot agents should deliberately (we hesitate to say it yet are unable to find any other word adequately expressing it) lie to the traveling public about the arrival and departure of trains particularly belated trains. They do it however every day in the year not particularly because there is anything in the rules of the company requiring it but because they seemingly find a delectable delight in disappointing those who are compelled to use the trains as a means of conveyance. Indeed it is the common practice among depot agents to report train belated from two to five hours from 30 minutes to an hour late when they ought to know better or at least have the means at hand for definitely finding out.

In consequence of such misinformation the traveling public is frequently held around depots many unnecessary hours both night and day which might be profitably and conveniently spent in either transacting business or enjoying the comforts of home. We know of numerous instances of sickness being superinduced among aged or frail people in consequence of the long tedious and oftentimes uncomfortable hours spent in waiting for belated trains at depots which were reported either on time or a few minutes late but which in reality were several hours late, and which the depot agent could have possessed knowledge of had he taken the trouble to find out.

The average depot agent seems to labor under the delusion that he is a czar or other sort of puissant potentate, temporarily filling his position until a throne turns up. He is fearfully and wonderfully swelled up over his $60 per year. There are exceptions, of course, some of them notable, as there are exceptions to all rules, but the general run acts upon the Vanderbiltian theory of the public be damned. Their report on belated trains is a case in point, arising every day in the year. The new railway commission can immortalize itself by putting rules in effect which will compel depot agents to tell. We have suffered from peddled misinformation long enough.—The Oklahoman.

STILL HOPEFUL ON BEAR.

Roosevelt and Party Will Beat the Gamebrakes Again This Week. Stamboul, La., Oct. 13.—The whole countryside turned out today in expectation of seeing the president take his departure from Stamboul for the south but in view of his change of plan the people were, of course, disappointed.

There was general expression of satisfaction, however, over his reconsideration of his determination to move to Texas. Paraphrasing for now that the change is not to be made, Stamboul confesses candidly that she would have been much chagrined to have her distinguished guest go away with an empty bag before the time originally fixed.

General confidence in his success in the new camp on Bear Lake continues and the reports from there are uniformly favorable. Indeed it is stated that a number of fresh trails were discovered yesterday and that on one occasion the party came upon a good-sized bear but that on account of the absence of dogs he made his escape. The hope is very strong that when the hunt is resumed tomorrow either this animal or another member of his family will soon be run to earth. Many of the dogs used in last week's strenuous search of the barren up-country are reported to be badly maimed and that an effort is being made to replace them with fresh animals.

It is not believed by the president's associates that he will now make any change but he has made no announcement on that point. All will depend upon the developments early in the week.

There is no doubt of the presence of game now but it is very shy and may disappear in the presence of the hunters as it did from the Monticello camp.

The order for the special train which was to have made its appearance today was cancelled last night but it will be renewed if the president wishes to go south. The Texas Pariah people are reported as much disappointed over the failure of the president to carry out his program for a visit to their section.

Secretary Lattin went out to the camp today.

FRANTZ WON'T LEAVE.

Says He Will Remain a Citizen of Oklahoma.

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 11.—Governor Frank Frantz has returned from Memphis where he attended the deep waterways convention after making the trip down the Mississippi with President Roosevelt. He will not discuss the talked of contests over the election nor will he say anything relative to the probable action of President Roosevelt. He intimates however that the change of the form of government from territorial to state will come between the first and the fifteenth of November.

Regarding the many press reports concerning positions that are to be tendered him by President Roosevelt Governor Frantz without directly saying he would not accept another appointment, declared that he would not accept the United States marshalship and that he expected to accept some of the business propositions he has before him and remain a citizen of Oklahoma for a while.

Last Days of Creek Nation.

Ogmaizee, I. T., Oct. 11.—The Creek council has been in session six days and little if any business of importance has yet been transacted. In truth it possesses but a shadow of authority and can only recommend, not execute, and all its recommendations require the O. K. of President Roosevelt before becoming effective. Since the days of Logan the Mingo chief, their affairs have been credited with great oratorical power and the credit is not undeserved. The present council contains several red Dugathones and Ciceros, whose burning eloquence charms the listener's ear and possess the art of easily molding blades the hearts of an audience till they beat in unison to that of the orator.

This morning after prayers by the chaplain a fullblood Indian, the entire body of the House of Kings joined in singing a native air in their own language. Like an air in Italian opera, all could feel the effects of the music although the words of the singers were strange and unfamiliar.

In the words of a listener: It got on one's nerves, and conquered by its very strangeness. Now soft and tender as a summer sephyr softly sighing among the pine tops of a Tennessee mountain it again took on a likeness to a barbaric chant changing to a strain as of wild Hungarian music.

The present council will devote most of its time and attention to matters looking to a final settlement of the tribal with the United States government and an equitable distribution of the tribal funds amounting to $12,000,000 and five million dollars consisting of money long held in trust by the government and the money arising from the sale of townships.

The Creek school houses, with the land attached and also the council house and other public buildings belonging to the natives must also be disposed of prior to statehood the advent of which will bring about the unification of the Creek republic a republic which had its origin in days antedating those of the American revolution. The Creek tribal government being republican in form.

A large portion of the tribal funds will be required for the purpose of equalizing allotments among the citizens. Each Creek citizen and Creek freedman receives in allotment of 160 acres of land but the value of these allotments varied greatly. Some of the land being appraised at only 30 cents per acre the maximum appraised value. Now the appraised value of a Creek allotment of the best land is $1,400 and citizens and freedmen allotting land of less appraised value is entitled to an equalization payment equal to the difference between the appraised value of their allotments and the appraised value of an allotment of maximum value $1,040. For instance a citizen has selected an allotment appraised at $100 per acre the total value of which is only $100 he is therefore entitled to an equalization payment of $940 the difference in value between his allotment and that of one of maximum value. These payments will require a large amount of tribal funds and little if any money will be left for a permanent payment.

Many of the Creek or Muskogees have called themselves as wealthy independent of the tribal funds and Creek country being the seat of the greatest development in oil recorded in the history of petroleum. The Creek pool is already a record breaker with a present production of 75,000 barrels a day a production that could be largely increased were the transportation facilities greater. The Standard Oil company has already tanked between 25 and 30 million barrels of oil in the mid-continent field and expended more than $50,000,000 in preparing for taking care of production. Whatever may be said in regard to some of its methods of doing business it is always profitable on the spot when it comes to taking care of production and most really truly oil producers speak kindly of it. And the Indians have benefited other fields in which the Indians are interested are Muskogee field which is again attracting attention by the bringing in of a well which when accurately gauged—not estimated—showed a production of 110 barrels per hour a record breaker in the mid-continent field. Still another the Morris field ten miles east of this place is already showing many good wells and oil men are enthusiastic regarding its future.

LAST DAY OF U. S. COURT

In Session for a Few Hours to Shape
Up the Docket Against the Coming of Statehood—A Day for Lawyers Only.

In accordance with the adjournment
some two weeks ago, Judge J. T. Dick-
erson arrived in Ada Monday morning and convened United States district court for a day's session. Unless
the people are disappointed in securing statehood this winter this is the
last sitting of the federal court in the city of Ada, and the next big court
will be presided over by Judge A. T.
West of Lehigh district judge-elect.

The judge, upon having court called,
announced to the assembled lawyers
that they must get busy for he pur-
posed winding things up so he could
get away on the 4 o'clock train, and
they got busy. A sort of scramble en-
sued among the numerous attorneys,
each eager to get his cases trimmed
up in good shape against the coming
of statehood.

There was scarcely anyone present
save the court officers and the lawyers. There was no need for others,
since, as previously announced, the
session was solely to consider matters
of law in the nature of unfinished business, demanding the presence of neither jury nor witnesses nor clients. For several hours the judge and the clerk
were kept quite busy while the attorneys scrambled for recognition and
pleaded to orders.

None of the court routine accompanied the judge here except C. G. Moore
deputy U. S. clerk.

Attorneys A. D. Andrews of Pauls
Valley, H. A. Kroeger of Francis and Allen of Pauls are attending U. S.
court here.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Hurd and G. H.
Chance of Francis were in Ada to-
day.

DOOM OF MIGHTY LONDON

Fire About the Only Agent Which
Can Cause Its Destruction

With hints of German invasion and
of an approaching earthquake, the
question "What will be the doom of London?" seems a not unreasonable
one. What will be the end of the great city? What will bring about a ruin over which Monday's New Yorker is to cast his morbid
glance? Several answers may be given.
The destruction of London at the
hands of a victorious invader is possible but extremely improbable. London may be besieged even bombarded,
but it cannot be destroyed. Flood?
This again may be dispensed as most improbable and one calamity only remains to be considered—namely—fire.
Now London has suffered more than
once terribly from this cause and in 1666 the city was practically wiped
out. Every one knows this, but it is not every one who knows that the
great conflagration was predicted 15
years before by Billy the astrologer
and by another a proleptor Nostradamus
a century before that. Nostradamus cast his prediction in a French quadrant in the list of which was that in 1666 London would be visited by a conflagration which would destroy St.
Paul's and 59 other churches—Cas-selle's Encyclopedia.

Killed Himself for Love of Dog.

Back of the suicide of Fred Vogler,
a farmer of Cherry Ridge, Pa., who
hanged himself in the woods near his
home is a story of love of great depth
in the heart of a man for his faithful dog. It is a story of a man's appreciation of a dog's life of devotion and of the man laying down
his life upon the altar of that friendship.

Rover always had a series of wags
of his tail and joyous barks for his
master. The dog appeared happy
when with Vogler, and the master always showed a similar feeling. They
were "chums."

Vogler's son, who was told to bring some more bread the other day
forgot it. There was but one loaf
in the house, and the father insisted on giving a big share of that to the dog. A quarrel between members of the family followed. He tossed most of the bread to Rover. Then the quarrel was renewed. The man
threatened suicide. He hurried toward the woods, threw a rope over
the limb of a tree, placed a noose
around his neck and jumped off the
box on which he was standing—Philadelphia Ledger.

What a Barber Is.

A friend of Oliver Herford the artist and author, enjoys nothing more
than to elicit a witticism from him by
means of a series of odd questions.
He said one day:
"Oliver, have you ever talked with a concocted German barber, one of those individuals whose head is perfectly
round, like an orange, and whose hair
stands up straight, like a dog's bristle?"

"Hoodlum" and "Hooligan."
"Hoolium" American equivalent of the English word "hooligan" was coined at San Francisco very early
in the 70s but did not become generally popular in the United States
until about 1877 by which time all versions in that the leader of the San Francisco "hooligan" push was a man named Muldoon whose name a newspaper writer ingeniously reversed to christen his gang "hooligans" and a composer's mistake of "n" for "h"
did the rest. Another explanation is
that "Huddle 'em" was the San Francisco rowdies' cry when the police
appeared, and a third alludes to a curious fess or "hood" worn by an eccentric character, which the young
rowdies adopted as their uniform.
